HARRY BALDWIN + ELITE BODY SYSTEM

Twenty years.
Every method under the sun.

Yoga, animal flow, calisthenics, powerlifting, bodybuilding, military training, HIIT, endurance. Harry has trained in, and competed across, most of them.

Then he burned out. Inflammation, chronic fatigue, seven injuries at once. He was told it was genetics.

He refused. Two years rebuilding the nervous system, sleep, nutrition and mindset. Then further than ever.

+120kg	+30kg	+10kg	15,000
WEIGHTED DIP	MUSCLE-UP	LEAN MUSCLE	HOURS COACHING

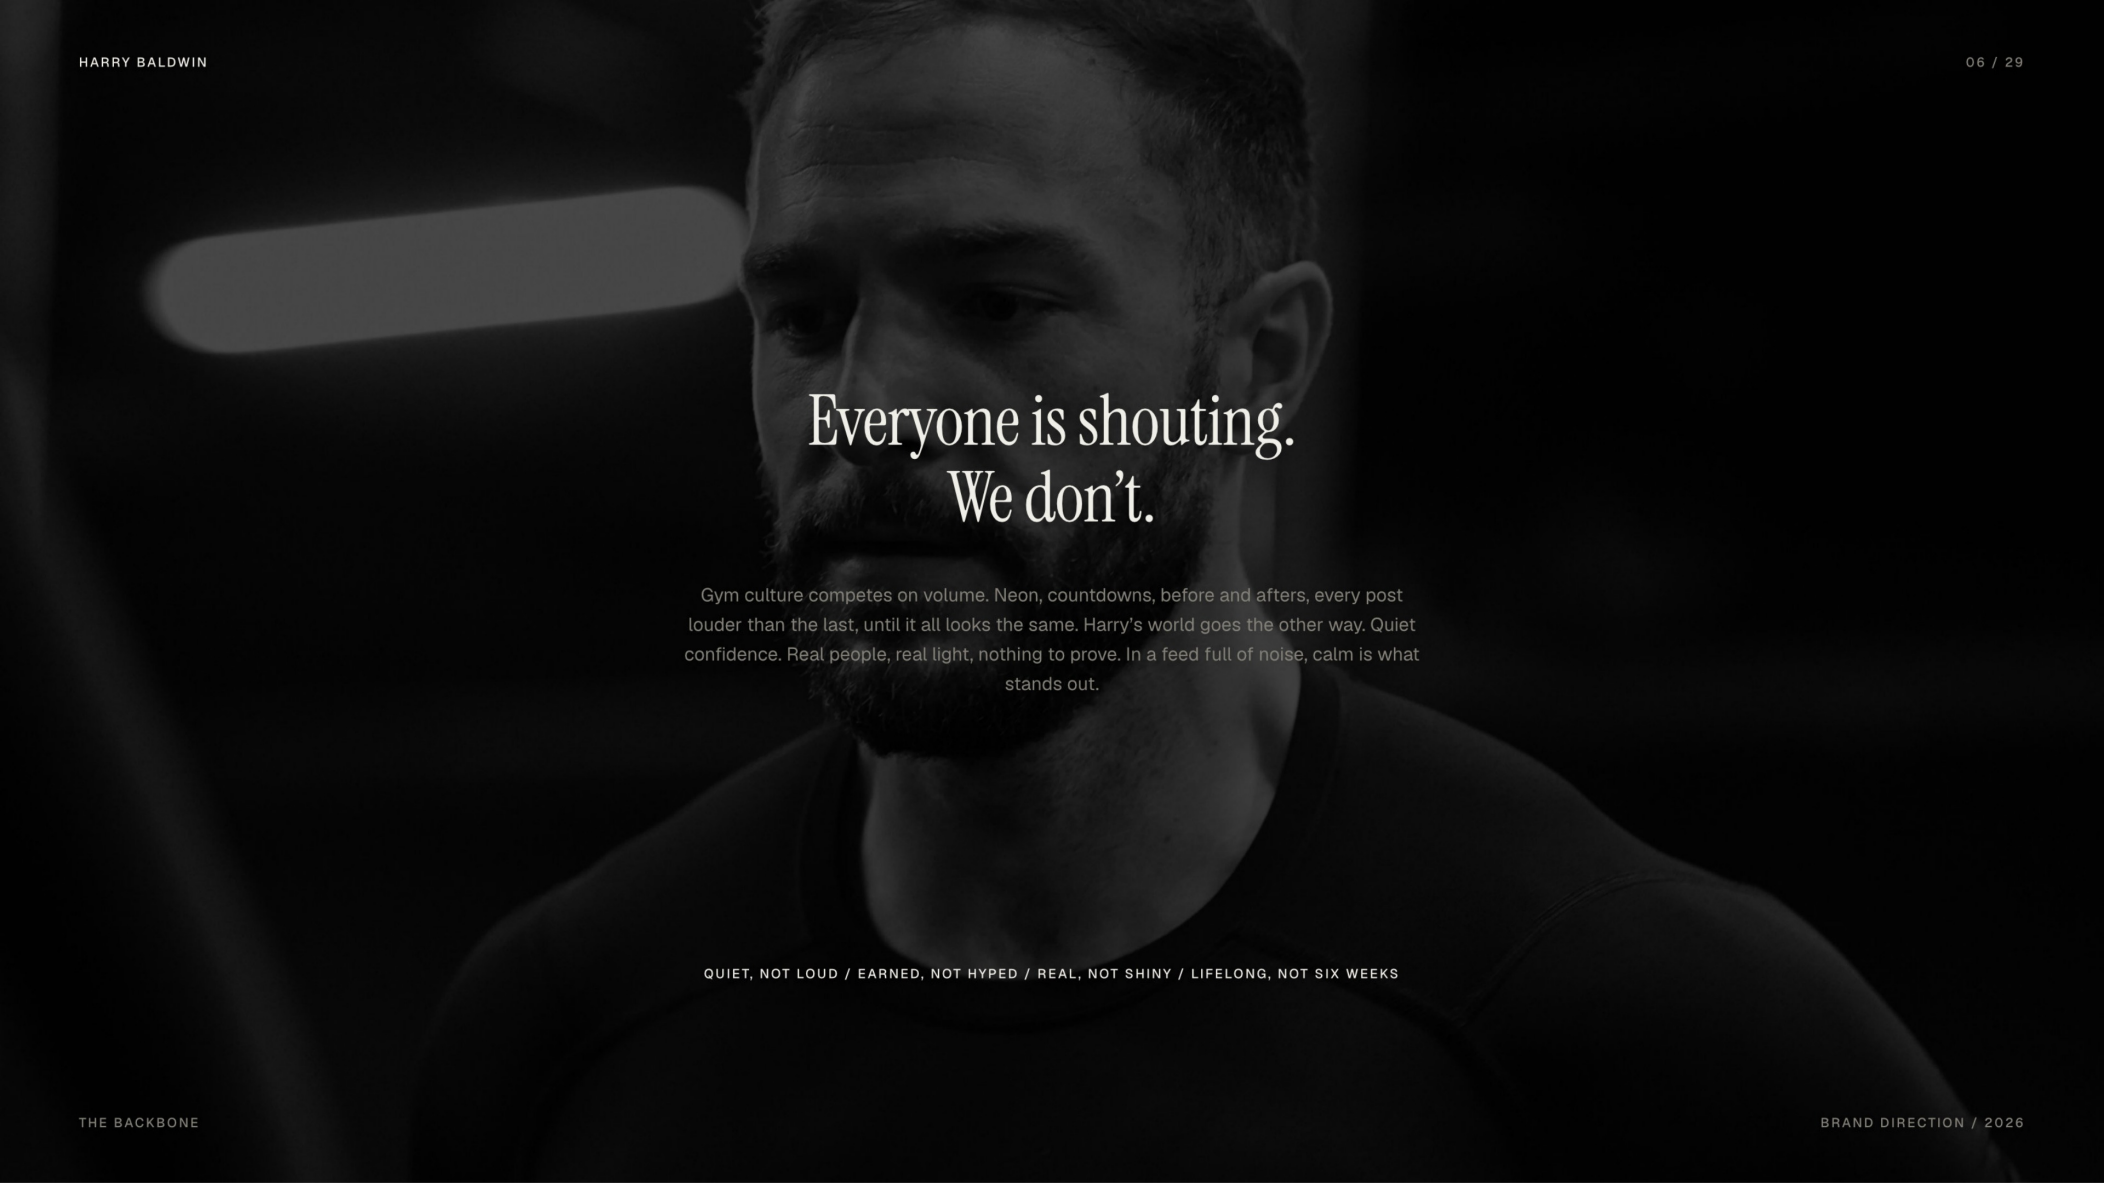

Not genetics. Not steroids.
Everything congruent.

Less is more.

Fewer exercises, done properly. Fewer words, meant. Fewer colours, fewer fonts, more space. Nothing added that does not earn its place.

TIMELESS / DISCIPLINED / EARNED / NATURAL / OLD-SCHOOL / LIFELONG

Everyone is shouting.
We don’t.

Gym culture competes on volume. Neon, countdowns, before and afters, every post louder than the last, until it all looks the same. Harry's world goes the other way. Quiet confidence. Real people, real light, nothing to prove. In a feed full of noise, calm is what stands out.

QUIET, NOT LOUD / EARNED, NOT HYPED / REAL, NOT SHINY / LIFELONG, NOT SIX WEEKS

What we don't do.

The visual language of mainstream gym culture. Loud, saturated, urgent and interchangeable. Shown here only as a reminder of where we are not going.

NO EXCUSES. BEAST MODE!!!

COUNTDOWN URGENCY

GRIND. HUSTLE. REPEAT.

HUSTLE SLOGANS

Stronger now than at twenty.

Founders, CEOs, doctors, physios, people who are world-class in other fields. Mostly 30s to 50s. Already training, already consistent. They know something could be better.

Art Direction

An old-school gym, photographed by an art photographer. Black and white, or muted colour. Natural light. Grain. Honest skin, chalk, iron. Stillness as much as effort.

~~Neon. Mirror selfies. Before and after. Gloss.~~

UNDER ARMOUR

Black and white, and muted colour.

BLACK AND WHITE / THE ICONIC MOMENTS

Portraits, effort, the details of training. Warm-toned, never cold grey.

MUTED COLOUR / THE LIFE AROUND IT

Real colour, graded down. Low saturation, warm, soft blacks, a little grain. Never punchy, never glossy.

Calm. Direct. Earned.

A mentor who has been through it, not a hype coach. Says less, means more.

Capability first. The body follows.	~~Get shredded in 6 weeks!~~
Your genetics are not the ceiling.	~~Unlock your best self!~~
Built, not bought.	~~No excuses. Beast mode.~~

PURE BLACK AND WHITE

#000000 / #FFFFFF

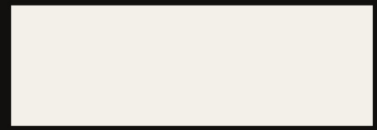

Digital. Clinical. Cold.

Calm is what stands out.

OFF-BLACK AND OFF-WHITE. OURS.

#11100E / #F3F0EA

A touch of warmth in both, like ink on paper. On its own it simply reads as black and white. Side by side, you feel the difference.

Warm mono, one accent.

WHY OLIVE

A quiet nod to military history. Field kit, service uniforms, the discipline of turning up every day. It carries order and resilience without saying a word.

WHY MUTED

The more muted a colour, the more considered and expensive it feels. Closer to heritage outerwear and a good watch strap than to anything on a gym floor. It speaks to people who have already built something.

HOW

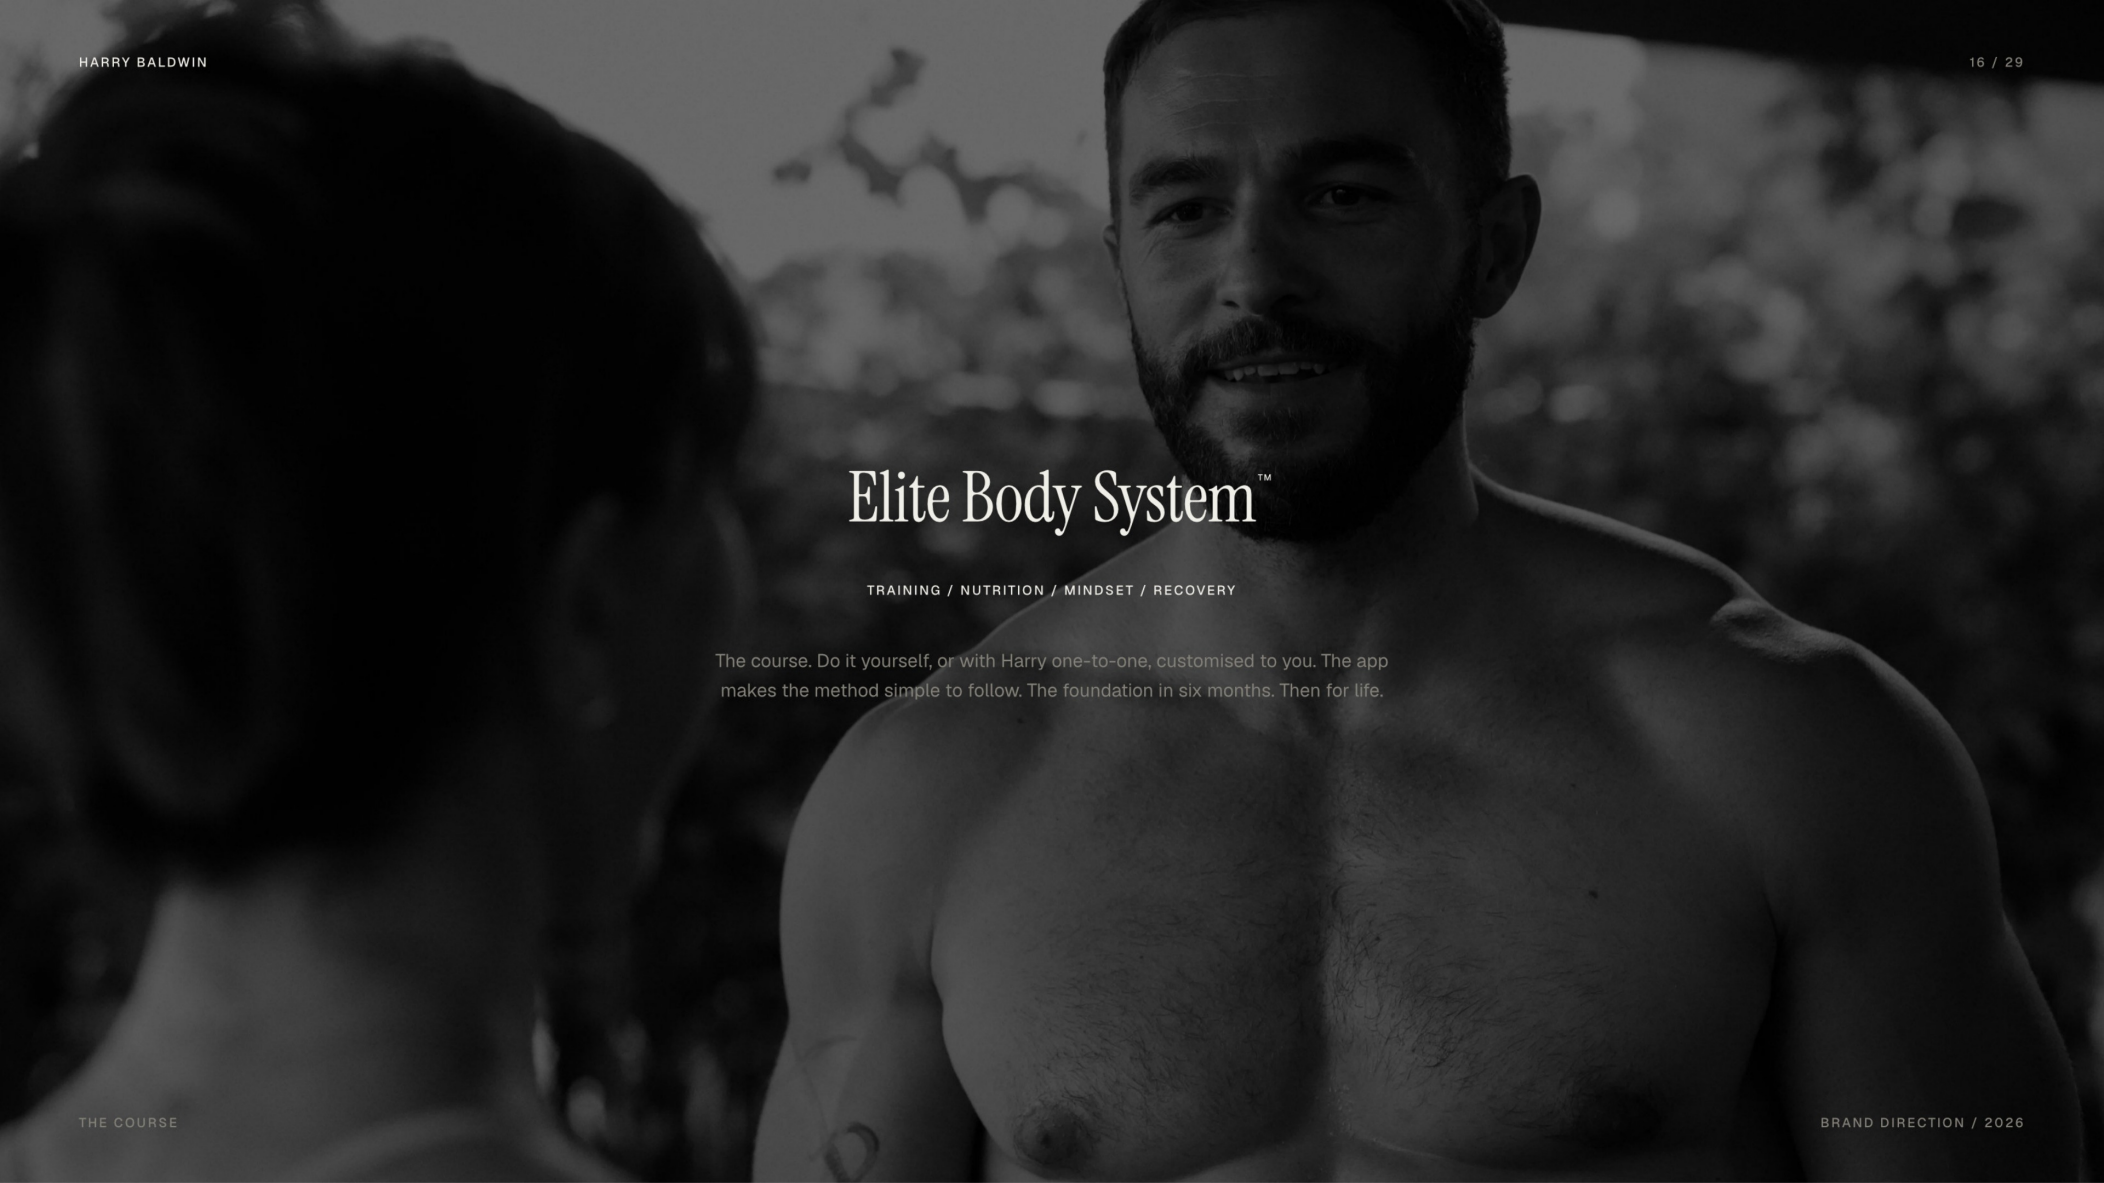

Black and white does the work. Olive is the only colour, used sparingly: under 5% of any layout, never a background, never on photography. It marks what matters.

SYSTEM BY HARRY BALDWIN

ELITE BODY SYSTEM / THE APP

The brand, in your hand.

The app is where people meet the brand every day, so it has to feel like Harry: calm, considered, nothing to prove. It is the method, made simple to follow.

01 / ONE WORLD

Same two fonts, same black and white, same calm as the deck, the feed and Harry himself. Open the app and it should feel like the brand, not a different product.

02 / A TRAINING LOG, NOT A SLOT MACHINE

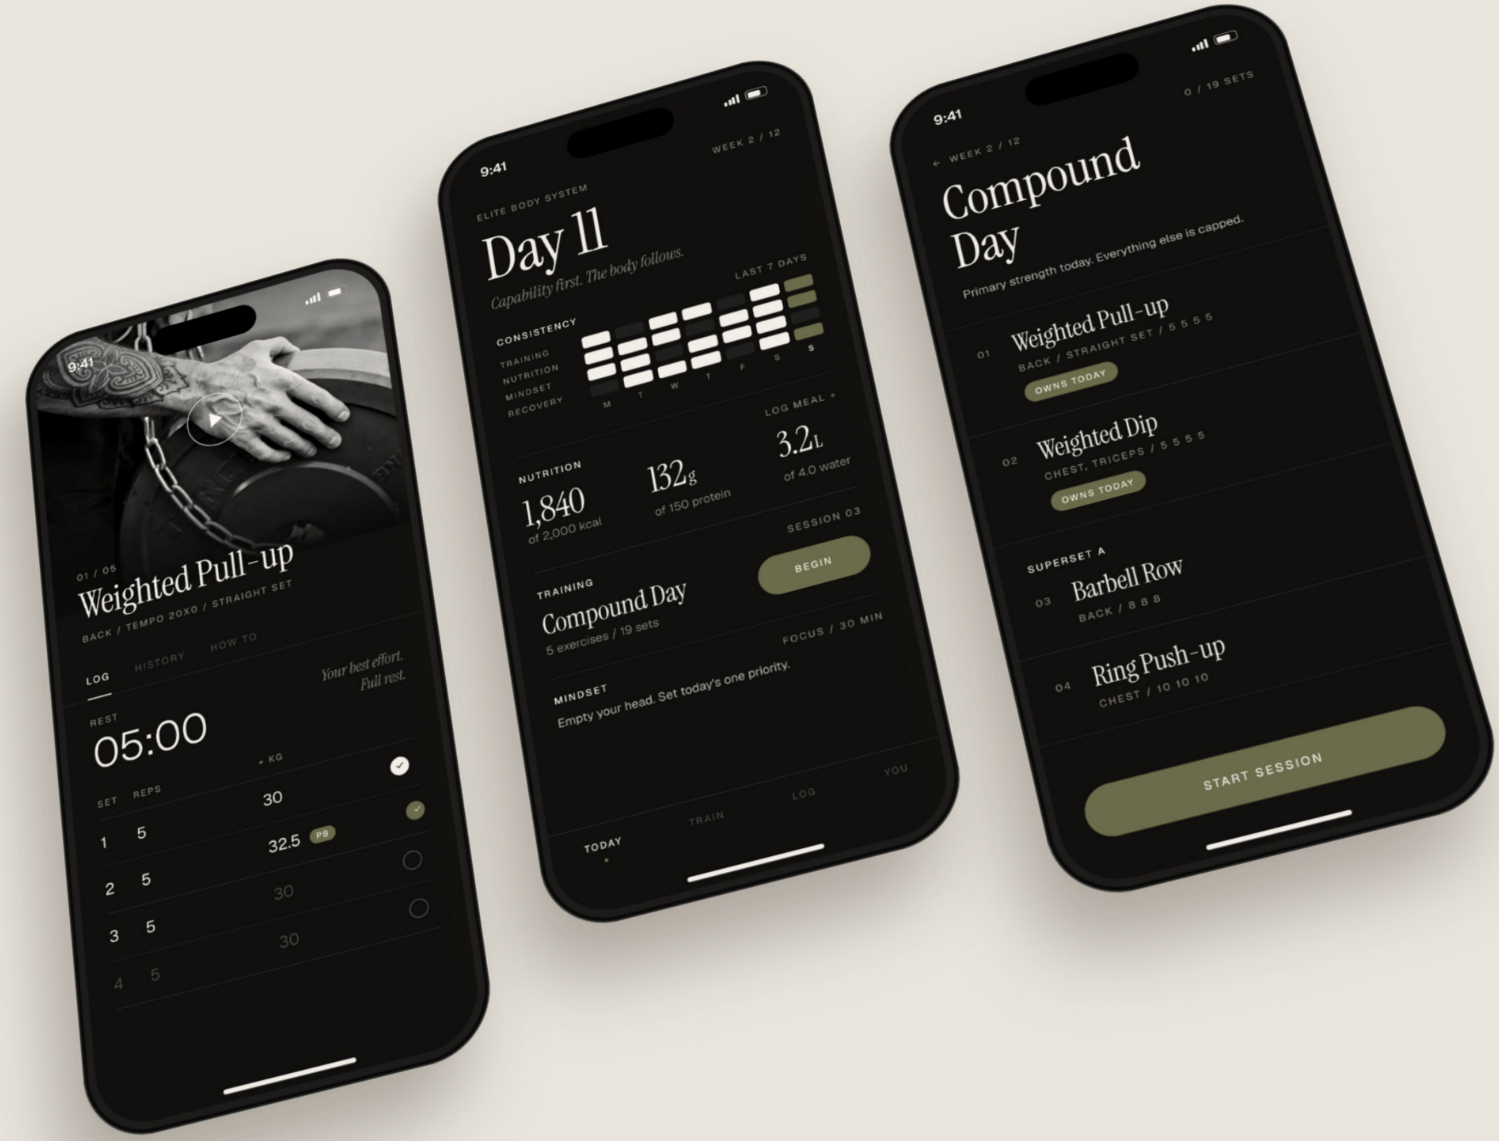

No confetti, flames, neon or badges. Progress is shown plainly and honestly. The numbers do the talking.

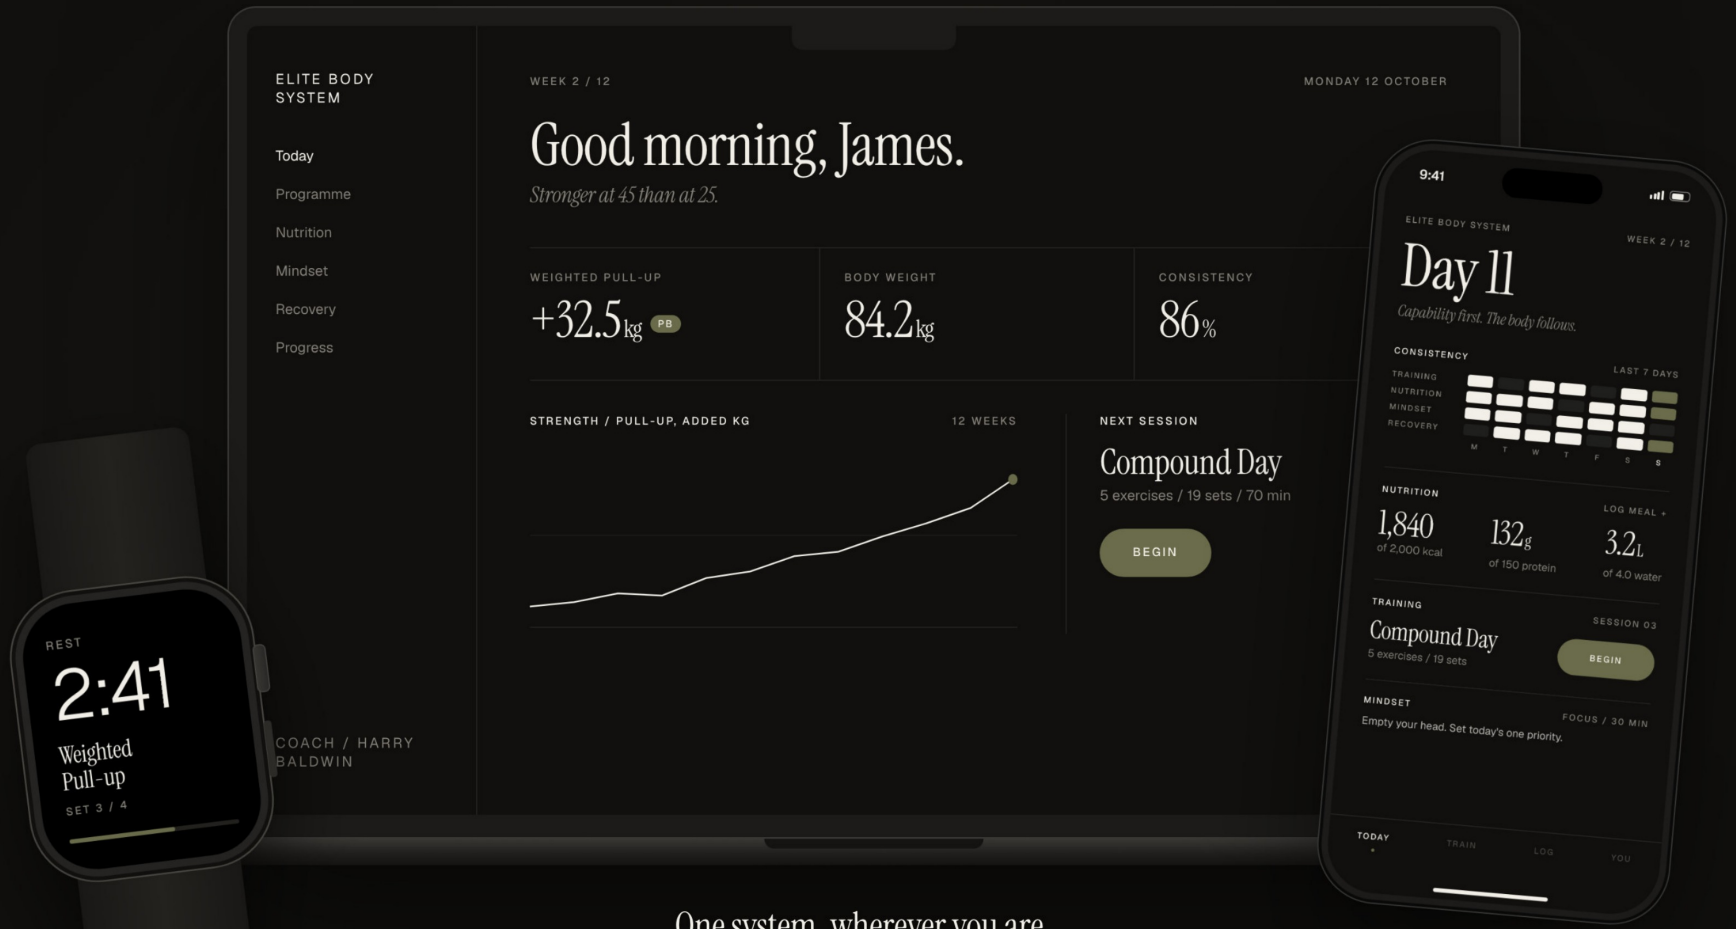

03 / ONE JOB PER SCREEN

Generous space. Big numbers, small labels. Nothing on screen that does not help you train, eat, think or recover better today.

04 / HARRY'S VOICE THROUGHOUT

Short, direct lines from him in the serif, not motivational filler. Capability first. The body follows.
